

Dear Sister

Antler July 11

1844

I write these few lines to you in hope that you are in ~~as~~ health, i am a little better than i came from you, my leg is a good and better than she was, my back is very poorly i got nothing to tell you about the house i did not see the man yet, i dont think what to do about an house, we was taking about John his daughter to go to ~~Swan~~ ^{Swan}se she dont want to go that way, and i did not fear' our her only ask her a word ~~about~~ about that do she answer me so no more at present
from your Dear Sister Jenny

I have a great thank to you for all your cost and trouble i did to you tel my wister don to go when she can shew the letter to her

Mary Probert
Penzance Cornwall

to be kept at the London street house

Farnmouth

Mary Probert
Penzance

ROSSER PAPERS 53

The man of Massygebidie did tell me that i should not leave the house where i live now and i dont know where to go! you may ask what you will to Bettis but dont you say every thing to her, i could not have any body to carry this down last saturday Bettis was to go! Truly was not at home then my leg is a good deal better than she was thank God that i am a little better, i must not think to be as i was